

NSLS Request for Training Exemption/Waiver Form: GERT

Individuals may be exempt from BNL required training courses due to the knowledge and skills acquired through previous course work or work experience. Exemptions may be granted at the discretion of the appropriate Responsible Requirement Manager for completed equivalent courses, professional experience, or college courses and degrees. The Responsible Requirement Manager is the individual who owns the requirement that generates the course need (i.e. point of contact for the subject area). If unsure of the responsible manager, forward the documents to the Training & Qualifications Program Office.
